

Interest-first cold calls. Don't say "I built you a site." Pitch a FREE sample only if they're interested.

THE SCRIPT

"Hey, is this [Name]? This is Nate, I'm a web designer here in Salt Lake. I'm not selling anything on this call, I'll be quick. I came across [Business] and noticed you guys don't have a website / the one you've got looks pretty dated. I build sites for [trade] businesses around the valley. If you're open to it I'll build you a free sample this week, no charge, and you only pay if you actually love it. Worth me putting one together for you?"

YES → "What's the best email or cell to send it to? I'll have it over in a couple days." (get text consent)

HOW MUCH → "$900 flat, or $1,200 with extra pages. You see it first, only pay if you keep it."

SEND ME INFO → That's a yes. Get the email.

HESITANT → "I can text you a couple I just built so you can see the quality first."

CONSENT RULE: Only text someone AFTER they say yes and give you a number. No yes + number = no text.
